

Beatrice Porter swore she would never fall in love with a man like her father. For years she watched her mother self-destruct in bitterness, married to someone who only lived for his job. Gabriel Sullivan was such a man—a Navy SEAL, a man who put duty and country above all else. Yet falling in love with him was inevitable. She thought their relationship could work until he left her one night with a broken heart and her pride in tatters. Three years later, he's back and he wants a second chance. Having committed atrocities for the greater good, Gabe has nothing left but darkness inside him. The only flicker of light is the memory of Beatrice—a woman embedded deeply under his skin. Winning her back won't be easy for she has erected walls that only the toughest of SEALs can hope to scale. When Beatrice finds herself at the center of a deadly game, Gabe discovers the eerie similarities of the killer's MO to a former assassin. Discovering a link to the past, a truth that may cost him the woman he loves, distancing himself may be the only option to save Beatrice, but he is done walking away. Gabe just needs to convince her this time he is all in, and a future with her is the only redemption worth having. * Strong sexual content and language. Some disturbing situations.
