

The complete Lost DMB Files Collection to date, including ten stories and 100,000 pages of double-barreled pulpy goodness. Save over 60% versus buying the individual stories! "The most startling discovery never to be made." ~ Jim Buckner Some conspiracies remain theories. Others become obsessions. Exhumed 100 years after their penning, the Lost DMB Files will reinterpret the way you see the world, or the way it sees you. Dime novelist and pulp fiction writer, David Mark Brown, mysteriously disappeared during the 1930s. Until recently, his obscure writings had all but been forgotten. Violent conspiracy theorists contend his fiction preserves a secret history, a history able to reclaim our future, if the war it unleashes doesn't destroy us in the process. Ranging from horror to Western to thriller, these pulps have been dusted off and collected for the readers education and enjoyment by author and editor Jim Buckner. Fans of Lovecraft, Whedon, Turtledove, Priest, Hodder, Resnick and Weird Tales should read these. Books included: Reefer Ranger Del Rio Con Amor Fistful of Reefer The Austin Job Hell's Womb Get Doc Quick McCutchen's Bones Twitch and Die!
