

Whats a god to do when his most sacred day of the year has suddenly become so...uninspiring? In all his centuries of walking among mankind, Cupid has never had an issue drawing his bow and aiming for the hearts of mortals, opening their most coveted desires and watching as they stumbled across what they yearned for. Well not until this holiday. Not until he finds himself struck by his most prized possession and thoroughly enamored with one incredibly beautiful human who needs to be shown just why hes worshipped...
