

A masterful retelling of a legend and famous headline of modern American historyâ€”Harry Trumanâ€™s upset victory over Thomas E. Dewey in the 1948 presidential election. Set in Deweyâ€™s hometown of Owosso, Michigan, this is the captivating story of a local love triangle that mirrors the national election contest. As the voters must decide between the candidates, so must Anne Macmurray choose between two suitors: an ardent United Auto Workers organizer and his polar opposite, a wealthy young Republican lawyer whoâ€™s running for the state senate. Weaving a tapestry of small-town secrets, the people of Owosso ready themselves for the fame that is bound to shower down upon them after Deweyâ€™s â€œsure thingâ€• victory. But as the novelâ€”and historyâ€”move toward election night, we watch the townspeople, along with Anne and her suitors, have their fates rearranged in a climax filled with suspense, chagrin and unexpected joy.
