

Abby, a stylist for Finess fashion magazine, has the opportunity to visit the Whitsunday Islands on a photoshoot that, if successful, could launch her career into the big leagues of high fashion. She cant wait to get started, until she finds that the photographer for the project is none other than her best friend from high school, Judd, whos been traveling the world as a wildlife photographer. A painful memory from their shared past makes her almost too anxious to work. Why did he have to show up now, just when shes finally started to get over what happened between them...?
