

This is a story of a little girl by the name of Rachel; she lived in the belly of the Louisiana swamps on a houseboat with her Granny and Grand dad, her parents were both killed in a boating accident. Being raised by her grandparents she never knew the warmth of someone's love. Her granny constantly displayed periods of hate towards her. One day, hurt by what she overheard her granny say, she took off and went deep into the swamps only to get lost; but to be found by a man named Luke that would change the course of her young life.
