

Tyler Oâ€™Grady canâ€™t believe his eyes when the woman steps out of the willows. Her sudden appearance on a private lake and ethereal beauty make him question his belief in mermaids and his sanity. When he greets her on the beach, his vision proves to be real and just as mesmerizing up close. Thereâ€™s no doubt the package is perfect, but itâ€™s something in her eyes that calls to him. He knows that guys like him donâ€™t get girls like Eden, but Gradyâ€™s never been afraid of hard work. Can he convince her to give up the glitz and glamour for country life? The lake cottage has always been Edenâ€™s secret refuge when fashion and flashbulbs become too much. She is dismayed when she discovers the oft absent owners have sold the private lake just when she needs it most. The new owner is a study in contradictions. The hulking ex-jock that strolls down the beach isnâ€™t the arrogant ladies man she anticipates. Gradyâ€™s humor and humility take her off guard and she finds herself intrigued with the gentle giant. When he invites her to stay, curiosity and a desire to hide from the spotlight make her agree, but it isnâ€™t long before itâ€™s the man himself making her dream of never leaving.
